

School Nursing

School Nursing is a specialized practice of professional nursing that advances the well being, academic success, and life-long achievement of students. To that end, school nurses facilitate positive student responses to normal development; promote health and safety; intervene with actual and potential health problems and provide case management services; and actively collaborate with others to build student and family capacity for adaptation, self-management, self-advocacy, and learning.